

Livestock Shipping Policy

All Livestock is to be picked up by Purchaser or Customer arranged transport. You and/or your carrier are responsible for the health and safety of the livestock once it leaves our farm.

Testing

All of our animals come with a Certificate of Health from our Local Large Animal Veterinarian, which is included in the price of the animal. Any additional testing required or requested by the buyer or buyer's local authorities are at the Buyers Expense

Contact your local Large Animal Veterinarian and /or your State Department of Agriculture to find out what testing is required before contacting us for purchase.
